Approximately 65 women turned out last Friday evening to a shower for Miss Shirley Spragg. Joyce Schumaker rendered a song, accompanied by her sister Gloria. A few games were played and Annie McCulloch sang a solo, with Mrs. Arnold McCulloch accompanying her on the piano. The Brander girls each played a solo on the piano. ## It Wasn't a Rat

Word received this week from W. K. Snyder, field supervisor, reveals that the suspected baby rat specimen reported last week was not a rat. Officials in Edmonton report that the specimen sent in is a monstrously, some cross-breed of albino mouse. In fact it is such a rare specimen that it is being mounted.

This scare should prove to us that it could happen here. Rats can establish a colony and their presence may not be detected for quite some time unless everyone is on the alert and report the presence of any rodent-like animal which they cannot positively identify.

Popular Didsbury Resident Dies In Hunting Mishap

Over 500 Attend Last Rites For Joe Freeman; Hunting and Business Trip Proves Fatal

A tragic hunting accident which took the life of Joseph M. Freeman of Didsbury, shocked the town and district when it became known early Friday. He was alone at the time of the mishap.

Mr. Freeman had gone into the east country on business, and like many hunters these days had his shotgun along just in case some good shooting was in the offing.

When he failed to return home during the night a small search party was sent out and his car was found with the keys in it, about 15 miles straight east of town. After a search of the brush in the area, the body of Mr. Freeman was found in some grass a few yards from his car, on the road side of the fence.

No sure explanation can be made of just how the accident occurred but it seems apparent his gun, a new one, discharged while he was going through the fence on his way back to the car. It appears he died almost instantly.

Farmers in the area and members of an oil crew reported seeing the car parked at the spot on Thursday evening and again early Friday morning but assumed it was a case of mechanical trouble and the owner had gone for help.

One district farmer reported hearing a shot from that point at approximately 5:40 Thursday evening and it could very well have been the fatal one.

Mr. Freeman was born at Innisfail on March 11, 1909 and moved to Okotoks in 1928. During the Second Great War he enlisted with the 14th Armored Regiment (Calgary Tanks) and served throughout the war. He returned home with the rank of lieutenant.

He entered the garage business here in 1948 in partnership with Mr. Wm. Payne. A few months ago the latter moved to the west coast and the firm became known as J. M. Freeman and Sons.

Active in all community work, Mr. Freeman was a member of the Didsbury school board and a councillor for the Didsbury Boy Scouts. He was a member of the Didsbury Lions Club, Board of Trade and past president of the Didsbury branch of the Canadian Legion.

Funeral services were held from St. Cyprian's Anglican Church, Didsbury, on Monday afternoon with Canon George A. Long of Red Deer officiating. Relatives, friends and former comrades, estimated at approximately 500, filled the church and overflowed onto the immediate area to pay their last respects to Mr. Freeman. He is survived by his widow and four sons, all of Didsbury.

Gravestone services were performed by members of the Didsbury and Olds branches of the Canadian Legion, who also served as guard of honor at the church. Pallbearers were Sid Wilkins, M. Wilkins, W. H. Payne, John Folkman, Harvey Gillrie and Ernie Walker.

SERVICE BOARD NOTES

I am pleased to see many farmers giving their summerfallow fields a final stroke before freeze-up. In the case of perennial weeds, this could well be the most important operation of the summer or fall. Jack Frost is a great helper to kill the roots of quack grass, thistles and foxtail, and land that is opened up and roots disturbed at this time of year will have a difficult time to re-establish themselves. The long open fall is affording a splendid opportunity to work the summerfallow this one more time. Don't miss your chance.

QUESTION: What does one look for in a mole or wart to see if it is cancer?
ANSWER: Any mole or wart that changes size, shape or color, bleeds, itches or in any other way shows it is being irritated should be suspected of being cancer. Final decision rests on the microscopic appearance of removed tissue.

Cremona Youth Reports On United Nations School

Following is a report given by Warren Reid of Cremona, to a recent Home and School Association meeting. Warren attended the United Nations Association of Canada Summer school at Banff under the sponsorship of the Cremona Home and School Association:

"First of all I would like to thank the Home and School for the donation which made my trip to the United Nations Summer School possible.

The purpose of the school was to help reach further into the minds of the citizens who've heard about the U.N. and yet do not know too much about it. I mean by that, that you can help by writing for literature and pamphlets which will further your knowledge about the United Nations.

The Banff School of Fine Arts is at the base of Tunnel Mountain along with three chalets which overlook the town of Banff and the view about it. There were 80 students attending. There was one large dining room and sleeping quarters in all three chalets. The students came from Cold Lake in the north to Lethbridge in the south.

There were five lecturers: Dr. Blackley, "The International Aspects of History"; Dr. Mackay, "The International Aspects of Geography"; Dr. Rowan, "The International Aspects of Science"; Dr. Smith, "Comparative Culture"; Dr. Sinclair, department of health and welfare, Ottawa, who spoke on the U.N. its organization, functions, achievements and unsolved problems.

Dr. Blackley, the historian, started off by saying that "history is the base of all knowledge."

Ever since people began wars they had some kind of society to settle their disputes. A man by the name of Dubois was the first man to organize a council in Europe to settle such disputes. But the nations parted and ended it because of disagreement.

In 1919 the fourteenth point of Wilson's fourteen points stated that there should be a world-wide association for the purpose of mutual co-operation and security. That was the year that the League of Nations was born. From 1920 it began to decline because it was not supported as it should have been.

Some facts which contributed to the downfall of the League of Nations are:

It tried to reform U.S.S.R. overnight, but that couldn't be done because Russia has had dictatorship for centuries; the people did not co-operate with the League of Nations, and the two largest nations in the world, U.S.A. and U.S.S.R. did not belong to it.

Then and up to today Russia thinks that the west is old-fashioned with its government, and the West is trying to westernize Russia, so who is the one to say which is right. Thus it is likely it will be settled by war. There are two types of security in the world: 1. Internal, 2. International.

He went on to tell about primitive types of settling disputes, e.g. if one was guilty, he sank (when thrown into a body of water); if he was innocent, he would float.

Summing it all up he told the uses of the League and these were carried over to the U.N.

1. Prevent war; 2. promote co-operation between countries; 3. promote co-operation inside of the borders of the countries; 4. assist in carrying out peace treaties.

Through The Study Window

By REV. C. C. ARMSTRONG

The pagan Triumphs of the Faith was a feature of the recent United Church Exposition. It presented in dramatic form the history and life of the United Church. The main events, or scenes, were dated on June 10th.

The first significant "June 10th" was in 1559, when John Knox preached before the Lords of the Congregation, and by his fiery courage and faith led his people to establish, on firmer foundations, the Presbyterian Church. It was a time of a clear-cut and definite separation from the established church and a time when the sturdy spiritual fibre of Presbyterianism was clearly demonstrated.

The second "June 10th" was in 1620, when the Pilgrim Fathers secured the Mayflower, under Captain Christopher Jones, to take them to the new land of freedom and opportunity. This too was a time of separation, for not all who believed as they did were able to make the journey. It was a parting from familiar friends as well as spiritual enemies. But it resulted in the establishment of a strong Congregational church in North America.

The third "June 10th" was in 1742 when John Wesley, having been denied free access to a regular church, preached from his father's tombstone, and witnessed to the transformed lives that had come as the result of this new spiritual emphasis, that resulted in the formation of the Methodist church.

The fourth "June 10th" was in 1925. In portraying this scene, when the different churches joined to form the United Church of Canada, no historic personalities were presented, but instead there were those who represented the Spirit of Christianity as an all-embracing faith; the spirit of Presbyterianism, of Congregationalism, of Methodism, and of the United Church.

While June 10th is a very special date in the United Church, there is another date which ought not to be overlooked. That is November 1st, All Saints' Day. It was on that date, in 1517, that Martin Luther nailed his "Ninety-five Theses" to the church door at Wittenberg, and nailed down the principle of the Reformation.

It is true of all those events that they are important. But it is equally true much of Christian history cannot be dated. It is a blessed fact that any day gives us an opportunity for spiritual adventures, perhaps dramatically uninspiring at the moment, but that can mark turning-points in the history of our own lives. The president of the Alberta Conference of the United Church makes no dramatic entry, to the accompaniment of heralds and beating drums, into the

RUGBY BLUEBELLS HOLD REGULAR MEETING

The Rugby Bluebells met at the home of June Blain with nine members present. The meeting opened with a song and the code was recited.

"Thank you" notes are to be written to those who provided transportation to and from Olds for the three members who attended the conference.

Plans were made to sell Christmas cards and to hold a food sale in town. The girls worked on their new program books.

The next meeting will be held at Daylla Byrt's home the third Saturday in November.

local church. Nevertheless his visit is not to be overlooked. As head of our church, in Alberta, he is a significant personality. As former minister of Red Deer United Church, he is a familiar figure. So don't miss this opportunity to hear Rev. Jack Gardiner, in Knox Church, Sunday evening, November 1st.

Zella W.I. Hold October Meeting

The Zella W.I. Women's Institute October meeting was held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Jim Johnston with Mrs. Joe White as co-hostess. Thirteen members and five visitors joined in the singing of a harvest hymn "Bringing in the Sheaves."

Roll call was a completed bazaar article. Keep in mind the bazaar date, Friday, Nov. 20.

Raffle tickets were distributed for the following articles to be drawn for at the bazaar: 1. dressed doll; 2. box of chocolates; 3. fruit cake; 4. mystery draw.

Mrs. A. L. Hogg paid her first official visit as constituency convenor and spoke on "Barley for Korea," resolutions, C.A.C. and life memberships.

Mrs. M. Knights conducted a flower contest for the "bit of fun," with Mrs. A. L. Hogg the winner.

Members are asked to note the next meeting will be moved ahead one week to Nov. 12, when Mrs. W. Jahnke will be hostess at the home of Mrs. Henry Harder.

Mrs. Jim Johnston and Mrs. W. Jahnke were recipients of Secret Sister gifts. The meeting closed with "God Save the Queen" and a delicious lunch was served by the hostess.

Does that Mrs. Gabber talk very much?

Does she? You ought to have seen how sun-burned her tongue was when she came home from her vacation in Florida.

Monthly Meeting Mt. View W.I.

The regular October meeting of Mountain View W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Hunter with nine members and 14 visitors present.

Mrs. David Pratt, vice-president, was in the chair as Mrs. Stiles is holidaying in Kentucky. It was decided that Miss Dixon, district home economist, should be contacted for a topic or demonstration, and the topic chosen was "Prize-winning Baking Secrets" and the second choice was "Remakes Can Be Fun."

The executive meeting will be held October 24 at the home of Mrs. R. Long with Mountain View supplying sandwiches.

A gift was given to Mrs. Charles Snyder as she was in the hospital recently. Mrs. Arthur Gebers gave a brief outline of the meeting at Lone Pine hall on Wednesday, Oct. 14 when Mountain View was invited to attend to hear Miss Dixon and Mrs. R. Fisher speak on "Color in Your Home" and the Associated Country Women of the World Conference. Mention was also made of meeting some of these women at the O.S.A.

Roll Call was answered with a Halloween trick.

The topic of the day was given by Mrs. D. Pratt on the Master Farm Families. The 10c draw netted $2.70, with Mrs. Gebers winning. Mrs. Bittner won the "bit of fun."

The St. George's W.A. met at the home of Mrs. J. Morgan recently when plans were made for a bazaar, to be held in Olds Dec. 6. The Harmattan Women's Club met at the hall on Wednesday to give the hall a clean-up. A miscellaneous shower was held at the home of Mrs. C. ## WEST NOTES

(From Our Own Correspondent)

The Elktion Willing Workers met at the home of Mrs. K. Barnard with Mrs. Barnard Sr. as joint hostess. Owing to the busy season only nine were present. Blocks were made of woollen pieces and will be put together for a quilt for the Old Folks' Home. This will be used at the next meeting, which will be at the home of Mrs. J. Bagshaw. It was decided to hold a social evening in the school, Friday, Nov. 6, with a 25-cent flap for adults and a 15-cent grab box for kiddies.

The meeting closed with "God Save The Queen" and lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hogg spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lowrie.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Rigney visited at the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Camps, east of Olds, on Sunday.

Mrs. Hughes of Didsbury spent a few days with Mrs. Byrt Sr. last week.

Little Darwin Krebs is again a patient in the Didsbury hospital, having more trouble with his infected finger.

Cremona W.I. October Meeting

Mrs. M. Enrich, president was hostess to the Cremona W.I. with 10 members present. Three adults and eight children were visitors at the meeting. The visitors were relatives of the members and when they were children lived in the district and went to school here. They were Mrs. Lorne Grant, daughter of Mrs. C. Franklin, a W.I. member of long standing; Mrs. Stanley Schultz, daughter-in-law of Mrs. Sara Schultz, a W.I. member for many years, and Mrs. Margaret Catanzarelli of Clinton, New Jersey, U.S.A., who was visiting her mother, Mrs. K. Bergeson. The members enjoyed the visit of these young mothers and their children.

The secretary, Mrs. Joe Bargett, handed in her resignation and Mrs. Sara Schultz was appointed to the position for the remainder of the year.

A parcel of print pieces donated by the T. Eaton Co. of Winnipeg was opened and given out to the members to be made up into useful articles to be sold at the bazaar, and sale planned for late in November.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

At Christian Science churches on Sunday the title of the Lesson-Sermon is "Everlasting Punishment." It contains statements such as these from the Bible: "My son, despise not the chastening of the Lord; neither be weary of his correction: for whom the Lord loveth he correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth." (Prov. 3: 11 and 12). And from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Through the wholesome chastenings of Love, we are helped onward in the march towards righteousness, peace and purity, which are the landmarks of Science. Beholding the infinite tasks of truth, we pause — wait on God. Then we push onward, until boundless thought walks untrapped, ad conception unconfined is winged to reach the divine glory." (323 & 12).

Notes From D.A.

HUGH McPHAIL

As fall approaches, numerous specimens of root rot are being received for identification. The most common type is "take-all root rot", which affects wheat primarily, in the black and wooded soil zones.

L. Saunders, Oids, had a serious amount of the above. At heading time, affected plants show up in patches on newer land or scattered throughout older fields. Usual symptoms are stunted growth, bleaching of leaves, discolored and decayed roots and crown and shrunk kernels, if the heads are formed. Diseased plants pull out easily since the roots are decayed and brittle.

Yields will be reduced this year where "take-all root rot" is noticed. Advice is to use a modified cropping plan in future years in these areas. Barley and rye are seldom injured and oats, flax and clovers are practically immune. In view of these facts, the following good farming practices should be adhered to:

1. Avoid seeding wheat year after year, but alternate with other crops.
2. Adopt a sound crop rotation plan, including a period with legumes and grasses, as recommended for your particular farm by your district agriculturist.
3. Use good, clean seed and recommended seed treatment.
4. Keep summerfallow free of weeds, especially couch grass, brome, other grasses and volunteer wheat, as these will carry the root rot fungus over to the following cropping year.
5. Where "take-all root rot" is prevalent, seed a cereal crop, other than wheat, on grass sod.

M.V.B.C. NEWS

Several new students have come to us this past week. Places represented are: Paradise Hill, Sask.; Victoria, B.C.; Aik, Alta.; and Edmonton. We expect several more.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Lusk of this faculty were in Calgary on Sunday where Mr. Lusk was guest soloist at the First Baptist Church.

Mrs. M. A. Finlay of Edmonton was a guest on the College Campus for several days.

Faculty and students held their annual "get-acquainted" party on Friday last. The students, divided into two groups, visited each of the faculty member's homes, the homes of the first president of M.V.B.C., Rev. A. Traub, and the pastor, Rev. Ray Shantz. Instead of meeting in the dining room afterward as was formerly done, they accepted the invitation of the Youth Fellowship of the local church to a party in the Neil Neufeld barn. The loft, still empty, was an ideal place for games, and a large number of young folk had a wonderful evening there. A nice lunch was served. Alfred Deitz, vice-president of the student body, expressed appreciation for the College to those who so kindly entertained them.

Some of the faculty members will be attending the Ministerial Convention of the United Missionary Church Conference to be held in Calgary Parkdale Church this Wednesday and Thursday.

Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Annett, graduates of this College, and parents at Winfield, B.C., passed through town last week, stopping over for a night at the college. They were on their way to the wedding of Mrs. Annett's sister, Miss Francis Wideman, Reg.N., at Castor, who is also a graduate of the school.

Do you listen to the Good News Program every Sunday morning at 7:30 a.m.? Miss Florence Reist is the new secretary-treasurer and will be most happy to enroll you as a member of the One Hundred Club. Just one dollar per month—and we do need one hundred paying members. Join now!

ZELLA NEWS NOTES

From Our Own Correspondent

Mrs. E. Lowrie was a visitor for a few days with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Walton of Edmonton. Mrs. Walton is improved in health.

Howard Christensen has enrolled for his second term at O.S.A.

Mr. R. Rankin of Sundre was present for the meeting held last Thursday evening. Electrifying the school seems feasible and with further word coming from the Old School Division another meeting is planned for Wednesday evening Nov. 4th. Again we urge all interested people to attend as this is a community project and will need the support of everyone.

The "Hoboes" were on the prowl again last Wednesday evening and had tea with Mrs. E. Walcott.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Johnson spent four days the past week helping Mrs. H. Youngs of Granger with a delayed harvest.

The Zella W.I. card party will be held at the school Friday evening, Nov. 6, with everyone welcome.

The sum of $18.75 was turned over to Mrs. A. L. Hogg for the W.I. donation to the constituency project, The Old Folks' Home.

MAINTAINING TRASH COVER

Sub-surface cultivators have proven superior to disc type implements in trash preservation in experiments carried on at the Lethbridge experimental station. Three cultivations of summerfallow with various implements left the following percentage of the original trash cover on the surface:

Blade cultivator 72 per cent, heavy duty cultivator 82 per cent, duckfoot cultivator 87 per cent, one way disc 15 per cent. Depth was important in the operation of the one-way disc; when a stubble field was tilled for the first time at a depth of three inches, 71 per cent of the trash remained on the surface, but when the depth was increased to 4 or 5 inches, only 44 per cent remained on top.

October Meeting

Ten members met at the home of Mrs. Allan Marsh, on October 22, for the regular meeting of the Bancroft W.I. A song, followed by the creed, opened the meeting. Mrs. R. Good presided, owing to the absence of the president, Mrs. Gordon Hoskin.

Roll call was answered by a trick, stunt or game. Minutes of the August meeting were read and approved.

Final arrangements were made for the dance at Lone Pine Hall on Nov. 6. Krebs orchestra will supply the music. A donation of $5.00 will be sent to the "Barley For Korea" campaign and two cents per member for "Ponies For Friendship" will be sent.

Instead of giving a book to the school library as the September objective, it was decided to give prizes to the children having the neatest school books, at the end of the school term.

"Ponies For Friendship" will be sent in for the October objective and used clothing will be collected at the next meeting.

Mrs. Arnold McCulloch gave a citizenship paper entitled "Man of Steel." Mrs. Paul Hauser won the "bit of fun" and Ruby McCulloch the draw.

Midway News

From Our Own Correspondent

Mrs. Gordon Hoskin entertained at a tea on October 14, in honor of Mrs. E. Hoskin, who was celebrating her 80th birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Burnett and Mr. E. Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoskin, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hoskin and family, Mrs. C. Swanson and Mrs. E. Hunter were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Swanson on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Marsh were Calgary visitors last Tuesday.

The new school building is under construction at the Midway Community Centre.

Don't forget the dance at Lone Pine hall on Nov. 6. Krebs orchestra will supply the music and the event is under the sponsorship of Bancroft W.I.

Boy Scout News

The Second Didsbury Boy Scout Troop held its annual re-organization meeting Tuesday, Oct. 20. A most encouraging representation turned out. There were enough new recruits to bring to 20 the strength of the troop. This is about the number the troop has had most years.

Promotions were announced as follows: Willard Stauffer from patrol leader to troop leader; Wayne Shantz, from Scout to patrol leader; Ken Traub from Scout to second; Glen Eby, from Scout to second.

The troop welcomed its new members, who were as follows: John Crawford, George Crawford, Lloyd Eby, Arnold Eby, Mervin Brower.

Several of the projects for the winter were discussed. As part of its "good turn" the troop plans to collect and repair old toys, which will be sent to the boys and girls on the Stoney Indian Reserve at Nordegg. A fall field day was discussed and also plans for the troop's annual winter camp.

New recruits are cordially invited to the troop.

CHURCH TO CELEBRATE FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

Redeemer Lutheran Church will celebrate the Fifth Anniversary of their church dedication on Sunday, November 1. The service will begin at 10:30 a.m. with the celebration of Holy Communion. The Rev. A. F. Reiser of Oliver, B.C., formerly pastor in the Didsbury parish from 1940 to 1946, will serve as guest speaker.

In 1948 the two Lutheran congregations in the parish made plans to re-establish themselves as one congregation in the town of Didsbury. Work was begun on the present church building. Much of the labor was donated by members of the congregation. On October 31, 1948, the building was dedicated to the glory of God. Festive speakers were the Rev. W. C. Elbert of Edmonton and the Rev. Dr. A. H. Schwermann, director of Concordia College, Edmonton.

During the past five years the congregation has flourished and enjoyed God's manifold blessings. In the five-year period, October 31, 1948 to October 31, 1953, the following sacred acts were performed: baptisms, 103; weddings, 28; confirmations, 48; funerals, 17. The congregation numbers 210 communicants. The soul membership stands at 347.
